

6516205422.txt

XM Radio and it's competition provide a pay service that I urge you to allow to remain intact. I pay for this service because the local stations that are a part of the NAB have lost touch with the end user of their own services. XM is innovative and informative and worth every penny that I pay. It should not be subject to the NAB petition.
Thank you